

What is a Form 1099G?

Form 1099G is a record of the total taxable income the Employment Development Department issued you in a calendar year, and is reported to the IRS.

You will receive a Form 1099G if you collected unemployment compensation from us and must report it on your federal tax return as income. Unemployment compensation is exempt from California state income tax.

Taxable unemployment compensation includes:

- Unemployment benefits, which include:
 - Federal Extensions (FED-ED)
 - Lost Wages Assistance (LWA)
 - Pandemic Additional Compensation (PAC)
 - Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation (PEUC)
 - Mixed Earner Unemployment Compensation (MEUC)
- Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) benefits
- Disability Insurance (DI) benefits received as a substitute for unemployment insurance benefits
- Disaster Unemployment Assistance (DUA) benefits
- Paid Family Leave (PFL) benefits

When will I get my Form 1099G?

We provide your Form 1099G by January 31 each year. We will mail you a paper form unless you choose electronic delivery by December 27. If you have a UI Online (edd.ca.gov/UI_Online) account, select Profile to update your Form 1099G Preferences.

Call 1-866-401-2849 if:

- You have a new mailing address. You can also change your contact information in your UI Online account or create an account with the correct information.
- A correction was made to your Form 1099G. This information will not be available online.

How do I request a copy of my Form 1099G?

 You may qualify for the federal Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) depending on your annual earnings. The federal EITC is a refundable federal income tax credit available to low to moderate income working individuals and families. The EITC has no effect on eligibility for Medicaid, Supplemental Security Income, food stamps, or most other temporary assistance for those in need. Even if you do not owe federal taxes, you must file a tax return to receive the EITC. For more information regarding your eligibility for the EITC, or to obtain the necessary forms to apply for this refundable tax credit, visit the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) website at www.irs.gov/efile or contact the IRS by phone.
